A sweet BWWM romance about second chances and overcoming odds, brought to you by best-selling author Nina Ford...

Silas Sullivan is a privileged college football star with the world at his feet. When one of his more misogynistic teammates dumps his fiancée, the ever-studious Joy Price, for a girl he just met, Silas finds himself in the unexpected position to lend her comfort.

Over the course of one spring break, Silas and Joy form a bond unlike any other, but their love story isn't without its complications. When a night of passion ends in an unexpected pregnancy that doesn't go as planned, the pair drift apart, going their separate ways into adulthood.

Ten years after the fact, the past collides with the present when Silas and Joy bump into each other at a doctor's office. Drawn together for a second time, they quickly find that their spark never quite went out, but will a second tiny life drive them closer together, or further apart?

You'll have to read to find out...

Suitable for over 18s only due to scenes of a sexual nature. This is a standalone romance (approximately 30,000 words) with a guaranteed HEA. Includes a linked TOC for easy navigation and one free bonus book. A shorter version of this book was published in 2015, but very little of the original books plot or content made it into this full-length second edition.
