Sometimes things won't work out no matter how hard you try. Brittanya and De'Quan have been looking for love in all the wrong places. Once their paths cross, they assume that the love Gods have finally decided to shine a little light on them. Both have been raised in dysfunctional environments. So when things start to happen that are clear warning signs of a toxic relationship, neither seem to be able to recognize it. The last thing on their minds is going their separate ways. Brittanya's thug addiction could very well cost her something that she could never recover from. De'Quan, blinded by what could be may very well lose the most precious thing to him, freedom. Will Brittanya and De'Quan realize that their addiction to each other has negative consequences for them both? Or will they be able to overcome and find the real love that they both so desperately seek.
