Lies (The David Chance Series Book 3) John Michael Hileman

Two men with miraculous powers: one sworn to secrecy; one the focal point of the entire world.

JON BLAKE

Jon Blake doesn't trust the voices in his head, but they have proven they can give him everything he has ever dreamed, including the love of the beautiful deaf girl who has captured his heart. All they ask for in return is his complete submission.

But the more they reveal their incredible power--not only to him, but to the whole world through him--the more the line between good and evil is blurred. As family secrets are revealed, Jon finds himself on a journey of discovery that will lead him to make a horrifying choice.

DAVID CHANCE

The dark forces in Boston are not done with David Chance. He has cut them too deeply. And for that, he must pay.

When David's son is abducted, he and his wife have to trust, one last time, in the author of the strange messages that appear in the sea of words around them. But will their faith survive when it is pushed to the breaking point?
