Just Wait Alexandra Lander

For Mira Winfield, the American Dream is beginning to seem like an exclusive night club where the bouncer keeps turning her away. Unlike most of her friends who have already begun their families, Mira has no college degree, no meaningful career and has yet to even cross paths with the father of her future children. With her thirtieth birthday fast approaching, Mira is frustrated with the stagnation of life and even more frustrated by people who keep assuring her, “Just wait...you’ll get there.” After witnessing the birth of her best friend’s baby, Mira can wait no longer. She launches herself down a bittersweet path of self-analysis that includes therapy, radical break-room discussions, “dating blitzes,” yogic wisdom, Zen meditation and even erotic Bible verses! Cheered on by a caring sister, a saucy best friend and an office full of sundry and entertaining coworkers, Mira discovers how much can change when she lets go of timetables.
