Memoirs Of Mayhem drops the reader smack into the middle of the chaos going on in both the author's house—bursting with four little boys—and in her own mind as she navigates the ever-changing, ever-challenging world of parenthood. Packed with a lot of humor, a little bit of sass, and a touch of emotion, parents from all walks of life will relate to the funny and touching stories inside this book. Discover that you are not alone in your own parenting journey, or in the feelings you encounter along the way, as you also find that even mundane tasks like doing laundry can be comical. Raid your secret treat stash, put yourself in timeout, and ignore the messes your kids make while you laugh at someone else's.
