Mitch Chambers wasn't the only person transported to survive on the new world. The Meme aliens transported thousands of other humans and animals from all over the Earth as well. Each group had their own idea on how to adapt, survive, and thrive. Mitch and his family must find these people and then learn to live and work with them in a greater community all the while trying to survive and map their new home. Dinosaurs, alien creatures, and the weather are just some of their problems. But their most terrifying threat may come from within their own ranks...
