His Mate- Brothers- Cody (Lycan Romance) M L Briers

Cody had it good. His life was going along just fine. His pack was doing well and everyone was contented. One town festival and one turkey brought trouble into his life in the form of a human female that turned his life upside down and made him act irrationally. From the moment they met he could exactly say she brought a breath of fresh air into his life. The woman was frustrating in so many ways that he couldn't even count, but damn he wanted her.

Lydia wasn't exactly clued up on all things supernatural. She'd written off any kind of excitement in the little town that her Uncle lived in and that she'd run to, in the hope of giving her ex a chance to cool down, move on. She wasn't exactly forthcoming about her past, she didn't think she needed to be. But when trouble followed her into town it had dangerous consequences that she couldn't have foreseen.
