Carter Garrison and Geno Crocker grew up in the game, and things were all good until that night when being able to run just a little faster meant the difference in which of them got away and which went to jail. That night started them on separate paths that led Geno to become a successful analyst, in love with beautiful Sabrina McMillan and Carter in jail for his loyalty to Mike Black and The Family.

Now Carter is getting out and Sabrina is worried that Geno will be drawn back to his past life. But Carter has other ideas that involve Mileena Hayes; she was, and still is, the love of his life. Their relationship ended the night that Mileena told him that she saw no future in a relationship with a man that would end up in jail or dead. He spent the last five years thinking about a future that doesn't include going back to work for The Family at a time when Rain Robinson could use a man with Carter's skills. Wait to see what happens when both love and allegiances call at the same time.
