This true story about one man who stood up to an entire State should be an inspiration to everyone who wonders if a “little man” without any legal knowledge can win in the highest courts. With dogged determination Joel Rosenthal, when charged as a criminal for taking care of a fawn, refused to allow the bureaucratic powers to determine his fate. His saga takes the reader through the unbelievable levels the courts, the prosecutor and the State will lower themselves in order to exercise their power. Every high school student should read this book.
