The Red String of Fate Jack Grimshaw

Did you know that from the day you are born, you are forever connected to another? An invisible string tied around your finger binds you to your true love, whether you know it or not.

When a girl is born with the ability to see this invisible string, her knowledge of her true love's fate will decide not only her own destiny, but that of an entire kingdom as well.

This short story is also bundled with another short story; "The Twin Crowns."
