"I downloaded the book and thought I would save it for an upcoming plane trip after reading just a little bit.....well, I got so into Meredith and her men that I just kept going! Wight tells a wonderful story! I really cared about Meredith and hoped she made the right decision with her love life. So many twists and turns...I did not figure it all out til the end. Sure hope Wight has another book in the works." C.B. Evans

Meredith Powers' career as a medical editor seems safe enough as she searches for love with the right man. But she is pulled suddenly from her serene world in Boston to one of intrigue, kidnapping, and murder in the Caribbean.

Meredith's simple life becomes terribly complicated when she works with an author who drags her into a drug heist. The reappearance of her ex-boyfriend, the D.E.A. agent, and the stunning response from her current accountant boyfriend all lead to complications, danger, and more than a few questions.

Meredith wonders if she really knows the people who surround her in her daily life. Her parents, her best friends, her boss, even her lover. She discovers that almost everyone holds secrets, and the unearthing of those cover-ups lead to mystery and danger that changes everything, and everyone, she thought she knew.
