The Language of Love: 23 Tips For Understanding The Language of Love in Close Relationships (Language of Love, language love, what is love) Mable Solomon

Love is all around us if only we reach out and touch it. Living in close loving relationships is easier than you think. Because we all want families where couples love and respect one another, and children grow up with an ever-widening perspective on who and what is of true importance for a life of quality and harmony.

In this e-book, The Language of Love you will read about 23 tips which will set you on your way to building families who see it through in good or bad times, when life is sunny and when days are troubled.

Because living in sound relationships is not only good for your health, it's important for you to succeed in a world which increasingly looks down on family life. There is no other system of society anywhere that can teach us what we need to know like the family unit. Here you are accepted as you are, and by following the precepts set forth in this e-book, your family will not only learn to grow and flourish, but they will seek to nourish, as well.

Ingredients for the best in close relationships. Which are only possible by learning the language of love, where couples and families alike will discover that close-knit families really do exist. Because you've created one of your very own!
