FAST (Fast Series Book 1) Ryan Ringbloom

Young Adult Contemporary Romance

Senior year in high school goes by fast. Young hearts fall in love and mistakes are made...by everyone.

Robin Barnes plays the violin. She's quiet, shy and has a huge crush on the boy next door. She's the good one. She may get the guy, but soon discovers the difficulties in moving too fast.

Ashley Simons loves strawberry gum. She's rich, popular and puts out so guys will like her. She's the bad one. She only knows fast and is knocked off her feet when someone offers her the chance to go slow.

What happens after the big kiss? After "I love you" has been said? After the happy ending? Does it always stay happy?
