Hope Kenneth Matthews

The first time Max Henson looked into her beaming blue eyes, he knew he would be haunted forever. Max finally found the girl of his dreams. Everything was perfect and he couldn't be happier. Doubt crept into his mind, but he fought it off with everything he had. That beautiful, blue-eyed bombshell he met at the park was the one, he just knew it. All it took was one date. One date and he knew for a fact that he was in love. She seemed to feel the same about him. There's no way he could have known that that one date was the only time he was ever going to see her. When Kate is ripped out of his life, Max spirals into a pit of drunken depression. From drinking vodka out of a thermos to passing out on the side of the road, he truly loses his way. Aided by his best friend and the most unlikely of allies, he tries to crawl his way out of life's deepest, darkest pit of depression. In a journey filled with more valleys than peaks, Max can't afford to lose sight of the one thing that matters most. Hope.
