Dottie Lou in her SECOND Note in the life of a Northland Musician reveals an emotional, incomprehensible reality, when her music career clashes with Marriage. She discloses how perpetually they fail to compliment each other. She embraces intrigue and indepth into the infectious temptations, the ultimate pitfalls, but not without abundant humor, the many nonsensical days of Wine and Roses that permeates the behind the Limelight scenes of the entertainment world, blending the silly with the serious. Tender sentiments and the sometimes risque glow of passion jump from the provocative pages of penned relationships. And from her pen emerges, with poignant concern, the traumatic anguish of her children as they cope with the unexpected death of a parent.
