Benito Mussolini was a brilliant Socialist journalist who in 1914 declared war, put himself at the head of the anti-Socialist movement in Italy, manoeuvred himself into power by 1933 and ruled the country until overthrown in 1943. He was a dynamic but insecure personality, who appeared dictatorial but always had to share power with the military and bureaucratic establishment. Mussolini founded an Empire in Africa and tried to 'make Italians' in his own heroic, war like image, but in fact failed to even control his own family! In June 1940, when France fell, he could not resist joining in the Second World War on the German side, although Italy was not equipped for serious fighting. His rule ended in Military disaster and personal humiliation.

This new biography focuses both on Mussolini's personality and on the way he exercised power, and regards these two issues as closely linked. It sees him as a man with all the talents needed to attain power but few of those needed to exercise it well. This book primarily focuses on how Mussolini had absolutely the wrong personality for a successful political leader.

Alva Stephenson:

As a student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Mussolini can make you sense more interested to read.
