Simon is tired of life. He's been living too long and too much has changed. The world he had been born into is gone and he knows that it will never come back... He's okay with that, though.

He's made his peace with the idea that it is his time to go, but before he can he must ensure that his legacy lives on.

When his boyfriend Daniel breaks up with him, all of Simon's plans seem to be in ruin. He finds himself angry and unable to contain the fire that is burning inside of him. He takes revenge for Daniel's selfish ways, but is caught red handed in the act.

Now he must find someone quickly to help him create his legacy because not only is the magical world looking to take off his head, but the humans want to see him punished for his crimes.

Will Simon be able to leave his legacy, or will his happily ever after be ruined because he let his emotions get the best of him?
