"...being the most refined description ever yet published of the sensual pleasure to be derived from the humiliation and chastisement of young ladies. Written by a gentleman expert."

Forty-four year old Charles Cameron, coming into fortune and being cultured and world-travelled, retires early from his life as a London lawyer to enjoy the refinements that one of his status and wealth is justly afforded. Yet his peaceful retirement is about to be imposed upon by a young lady by the name of Maud Rivers, whom Charles is burdened to act as guardian.

When Maud defies his orders and steals a particularly lascivious volume of literary erotica from his forbidden bookcases, Mr Cameron is more than eager to apply the birch and rod to her naive and uneducated posterior.

What follows is a delicious tale of Maud's 'training' in the practices of Libertinage by a sexually domineering disciplinarian.

This rarely seen gem of post-Victorian erotica, anonymously written in 1903, will be sure to titillate and tantalize readers a century after it was originally written.

Locus Elm Press is proud to present the work in its original and complete two-volume entirety.
