Autismo: La educación de Mark Hartmann: Una historia de autismo y determinación familiar (Spanish Edition) Roxana Sanchez, Joseph Hartmann

Autismo: La educación de Mark Hartmann es una historia de surgimiento. En él se documenta el progreso de un estudiante, desde el triunfo, seguido por la expulsión, sólo para concluir con el resurgimiento y triunfo una vez más. Mientras que los educadores pesimistas y los abogados revuelven en un caso legal para explicar la exclusión de Mark Hartmann de la educación inclusiva, Mark, su familia, y sus aliados marchan hacia adelante en la búsqueda de formas creativas para demostrar que Mark puede florecer como estudiante con autismo. Con una narrativa rica y suntuosa que se extiende todo el camino hasta la Corte Suprema de los Estados Unidos, este libro sintetiza la lucha de una nación a favor de las oportunidades educativas para estudiantes con autismo y otras discapacidades de desarrollo. Esta es la dramática historia de un estudiante, Mark Hartmann, y sus padres defensores de sus derechos como estudiante. La educación de Mark celebra la educación como la puerta de entrada a la plena ciudadanía. -Douglas Biklen, Ph.D., Decano, Facultad de Educación, Universidad de Syracuse, New York
