For the typical middle class and upper class American family looking to send their children to college is a very expensive, confusing, and time consuming process. The college's CFO or Chief Financial Officer (financial aid officer) and your high school guidance counselor are helpful, but only to a certain extent.

You know you have a HUGE bill to pay for your child's college and you're scared to death because you don't know how you're going to pay it. And, the system seems to be stacked against you.

In this book, How To Pay For Your Child's College Education Without Going Broke!, Charlie explains how you can put yourself in position to take advantage of the system and have it work for you. He teaches how to pay for college comfortably so that you don't have to use up your retirement accounts, mortgage your house to the hilt, or drastically change your lifestyle.

If you have a high school Sophomore, Junior, or Senior who will attend college after high school then this book is for you.
