The Mind Will Always Attempt To Make Logic Out Of Chaos. . . The poems and short stories in this book all have more involved stories behind them. These are glimpses into those poems and stories. Sarah's Freedom: A woman marries the love of her life, man of her dreams, only to wake up one morning and admit to herself that she's in an abusive and controlling marriage. After years of hoping things will get better, she decides that she has had enough and plans a way out. Be Ye Friend or Foe: Tells of a modern-day American soldier/warrior expressing his loyalty and dedication in which he serves the country he loves. Lena: Lena is a free-spirited, beautiful young girl who finds herself intrigued by an attractive older man. She starts a self-serving relationship with him. She visits him as her needs demand, and his arms are always open. He wants more than the short visits, but is happy to take whatever time she spends with him.
