The Wolf & Dragon: M/M MPREG Paranormal Romance Wendy Quinn

When a snarky Dragon shifter and an arrogant Wolf shifter meet, sparks fly.

But what happens when they are forced to watch a dragon's egg?

I caught my gaze settling on his bare chest again. He was annoying and rude, but he still had a nice body that made me feel weird. He got up and walked over to the egg that we brought inside, he made sure it was swaddled in sheets. Ceppelli disappeared into the back of his apartment and came back with a soft bristled brush and began to brush the egg. A weird peace started to seduce me. The way he showed such tenderness to the egg made my face heat up just a tad. The egg began to glow, Ceppelli continued to stroke the egg in silence. Secretly, I wished it was me he was brushing. Those muscled arms felt so good wrapped around my waist.

Ceppelli threw me this sad look, he wasn't as annoying as I thought, but still weird. He strode over to me and began brushing my hair. Finally. My eyes closed and I felt at ease. A smile nearly melted on my face, but I wasn't going to act that pathetic. My lips popped open just a little bit while my head was tilted backwards. I didn't do it on purpose, swear, I was just simply relaxing.
