While You Were Shifting: A Hot and Humorous Shifter Romance Dawn Steele
A TOP 20 SHIFTER ROMANCE!

Every weekday in Wendy Fraser's humdrum life, a tall, dark and handsome guy would walk into the café she works at and order hash browns to go. But he never notices her. Why should he? She's only an assistant fry chef. Her hair is in a net and she's in coveralls.

Until one day, their eyes meet across time and space, and he smiles at her! Ohhh!

This is enough to send Wendy into a tizzy. On a lark, she follows him as he comes out of the train station one day. Good thing, too, because Mr. Handsome promptly trips over a stray brick and knocks himself into a coma.

A distraught Wendy mutters, "You can't die on me. We're going to get married and all, now that I've finally met you." She doesn't mean for anyone to overhear it, but someone does.

In the ensuing confusion, she is mistaken for his fiancée. She meets his estranged billionaire family, who are just DYING for Dylan (Mr. Handsome) to be engaged to someone he loves. "You may be the catalyst who saves our family," Dylan's bear shifter father declares.

Kirk, Dylan's fraternal twin brother, isn't so sure as he suspects that something is not right. Wendy knows that sooner or later, she has to reveal her secret, but how can she do it without hurting the family she has come to love?

Then Dylan wakes up . . . with unexpected consequences.
