Ignacio de Loyola fundo la Compania de Jesus despues de ser herido en batalla y experimentar una conversion religiosa. Desde 1540 esta orden, liderada por El Papa Negro, ha desarrollado una notable influencia politica y social. Ni la secularizacion ni el anticlericarismo pudieron acabar con la obra de Ignacio. Estos soldados de Dios han estado presentes en todos los continentes desde el principio de su historia, evangelizando e impariendo ministerio apostolico. Esta obra, ganadora del XII Premio Algaba, nos acerca a la fascinante historia de la Compania de Jesus, desde su fundacion hasta el presente, en que el Papa Francisco es el primer jesuita en sentarse en la Cathedra Petri. / Ignatius of Loyola founded the Society of Jesus after being wounded in battle and experiencing a religious conversion. Since 1540 this order, led by the Black Pope, has displayed a remarkable political and social influence. Neither secularization nor anticlericalism could extinguish the work of Ignatius.
