More summer fun with the King cousins on Prince Edward Island---for ages 10-12 In book three, the King cousins rollick through their fast-flying summer on the farm, creating fun and mischief as they go. They hear a ghost ringing a bell, they eat sawdust pudding, and 'The Story Girl' tells them the history of kissing. But the big event is that they hear a dreadful prophecy about the end of the world that drives fear into their hearts as they discuss heaven and hell and the final judgment.
