Summer Letters Dan Petermeier

During an adventure-filled summer, will one letter bring two people together or force them to say goodbye - forever?

When twenty-year-old banker Liam Roberts is introduced to a flirtatious and eye-catching young woman, their mutual attraction soon stretches boundaries he never thought he'd cross. He quickly realizes that God's plan for him may take him on a surprising and unexpected journey.

>>>A tear-jerking romantic drama about discovering how the pieces of life's puzzle fit together.

Caring and considerate, the young Midwesterner doesn't suspect that the pursuit of his soul mate would be wrought with heartbreak. Raised in a conservative environment, Liam struggles with finding faith not only in his religion, but also in others, especially women.

As spring turns to summer and Liam's love life starts to heat up, he leaves no stone unturned and he finds himself writing letters to someone he's never met.

Will any of the women in his life be anything more than friends? If so, will he be left heartbroken once more?
