"...totally engrossing...wonderful and exciting read." -Patricia Day, Readers' Favorite-

There are many reasons folks come to Yellowstone National Park to work. Some come to sow their wild oats, get closer to nature, or to explore. Others come to heal... or to hide.

For Gracie O'Dowdy, Canyon Village is the only place she can pretend to be just like everyone else. She's found a home, a family. When the people around her begin to die, she is forced to accept who – and what – she is.

After a close friend becomes a victim of the Canyon Killer, Ranger Hudson Foster will stop at nothing to get his pound of flesh. The deeper he digs, the more certain he becomes that the killer is none other than Gracie.

After all... she's done it before.
