The Duke of Fire

Lady Katherine Ellsworth lives a beautiful, dull country life in the midst of the Somerset moors. Her main concerns are country fayres and village intrigue. But when her cousin is murdered, Katherine soon learns that the killer has targeted her next. Walking upon the moors one day, she is attacked by a vicious man wielding a saber.

There is nothing for her to do but seek protection with her late cousin's betrothed, Harold Rockfall, Duke of Highset. Harold Rockfall is a veteran of the wars in France, and has only returned to England to hunt his betrothed's killer. But when he meets Katherine, he begins to wonder if he hadn't picked the wrong cousin after all.

With the killer on the loose, Harry should be doing everything in his power to catch him. So why is it he never wants to leave Highwall Castle? Why is it he never wants to leave the intriguing and dangerous Lady Katherine Ellsworth?

As Bad As You

Emily Brooke has three men fighting for her hand in marriage – her oldest friend, a rakehell she would never be with; the disinherited son of a wealthy Earl; a Duke, rich and influential. They would do anything to marry her, even turn against each other – which is exactly what Emily is relying on. If they won't leave her be, then she will have her way with them.

Little does she know, however, that things will turn against her. Her best friend has had enough of her games, and the others grow tired of her childishness. She takes things too far, and when she finally realises she is in love with one of the men, they are no longer interested. What will become of Emily? Things seem hopeless now, and perhaps they are.
