Reverend Brown shares some of her life's experiences and testimonies. She discusses the importance of knowing who you are in the body of Christ, developing a hunger and thirst for the Word of God, maintaining dignity and a positive character and how to just accept what God allows, even when it may not feel good. She believes that this is a journey of faith, trust and abiding in Christ. She is motivated by St. John 15:8 "Herein is My Father Glorified, that you bear much fruit, so shall you be My Disciples."
