Fabian returns from college to rekindle his relationship with his mother Joan after she's diagnosed with cancer. He also has plans to take down the family's sex trafficking ring ran by his stepfather Joseph. But what Fabian didn't bargain for was reconnecting and falling in love with Monet, his childhood best friend, who was also raised as his sister. Unfortunately, Monet is one of Joseph's top producers and must assist him in getting rid of Fabian.

Then, there's Edwin, Monet's younger brother. He's incarcerated and ready to join forces with Fabian. The only issue is Fabian's best friend, Roosevelt, who's in love with Edwin's girl, Dice. Although Roosevelt and Edwin aren't at odds, their love for Dice will make for a tumultuous triangle, and she may be forced to choose.

Who will Monet choose, Fabian—her best friend and lover, or Joseph—her provider and pimp? Will Dice revisit her past with Roosevelt, her first love, or will she remain faithful to Edwin, the current love of her life? Find out if real love can conquer all when love is all you really need in; Real Love Is Not For Sale.
