This is a work of fiction. Characters, events and places were created by the author's vivid imagination. Any resemblance to real people, events and places is purely coincidental.

Mila starts off as a shy twenty-six-year-old bisexual young woman, lacking in confidence. She's trying to find her place in the world, and herself in the process.

After one night of passion with a corrupt politician, Ralph, it gradually results in her descending into a living hell as he becomes obsessed with tormenting her via his callous daughter, Roxy Lou, who blackmail and train her to become an assassin - using her to kill their enemies.

To her horror, after discovering who they are and exactly what they're capable of - she decides that the only way out of the mess is to find it within herself to change the situation using her growing inner strength of character and her survival instinct.

Can Mila turn the tables on them? Those who threaten her, they're dancing with danger!
