Your Law School Guide: Making It Through the Application Process is a step by step guide of what the law school application requirements are and how to tackle them effectively and efficiently. Written by an attorney and graduate of the University of Florida Levin College of Law, the book also challenges potential law school applicants to examine and determine their motivation and passion for attending law school before they begin the rigorous process. It includes self reflection exercises to assist the potential applicant in understanding their motivation and passion. It also includes advice on researching and ranking law schools according to the applicant's needs, advice on writing personal statements, and discussion/critique of methods of LSAT preparation--all of which assisted the author in being accepted into one of the most competitive law schools in the country.
