In the city of Cairo, Egypt, no one died for seven years. The world believes the city is a divine gift, promising its inhabitants to live forever. Cairo becomes paradise, protected by international troops and a mysterious fog, preventing intruders from buying their way in, and natives from leaving until the mystery is solved.

Only three sinners with a dark secret know that immortality is hell, and that the only way to live is to die. In their supernatural journey for answers, they discover the existence of a secret society, the descendants of Pharaohs, called Cynopolis; a quest for the secret of the universe called The Aleph; and the prisons of the mind.

Salma Farid, once a poor girl with an abusive father, suffering from fear of water. Ehab Rawi, a surreal artist and an alcohol addict. Salem Hamdan, a blue-blind business man living on borrowed time.

Either they solve the mystery, face their dark and terrible secrets, and set their souls free from the ghosts of the past, or forever stay Prisoners in Parad
